“Observatory of Municipalities”

The Archanon – Asterousion Municipality is located within the Prefecture of Heraklion, in Crete, and its territory includes 59 communities. The Municipality is located geographically near the centre of the island of Crete, which includes 24 Municipalities in total.

The “Observatory of Municipalities” can act as a focal point for the Municipalities of Crete but also other Greek regions, to find information on the MedStrategy project, the activities undertaken and the experiences gained on good practices of “Governance”. It is accessible on line through the official website of the Archanon-Asterousion Municipality, in the section dedicated to the MedStrategy project, through the following link:
